

VASSILIS FILIAS

JUXTAPOSITIONS

CONTENTS

Dictatorship – Resistance – The Polytechnic School Uprising

|   |    |
|---|----|
| PREFACE   | 9  |
| The Polytechnic School  | 13 |
| The Polytechnic School is not the Pool of Siloam                                | 16 |
| The one who forgets suffers again   | 19 |
| The exploitation of Resistance has to stop                                      | 23 |
| The last message of Panagoulis  | 26 |
| Are the sacrifices of 7 years oppression remain meaningless?                    | 28 |
| The duty of the Polytechnic generation  | 31 |
| The Polytechnic School Paradigm   | 34 |
| Why the resistance has played a secondary role during the political change-over | 36 |
| 14 years after the putsch, need for self-criticism                              | 39 |
| The meanings of the celebration march in memory of the Polytechnion uprising    | 42 |
| Conditions in order to avoid another 21 April                                   | 45 |
| The treatment of the resistance fighters: – Bitter truths 9 years afterwards    | 47 |
| A reply to the “17days of Polytechnion”   | 51 |

PARTIES AND POWER: OXYMORA AND CONTRADICTIONS OF THE FIRST SEVEN-YEAR POST-JUNTA PERIOD

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| The smugglers of ideas and the undermining of the change      | 57  |
| Political Pathology and the entrapment of the people          | 61  |
| The counter-popular forces cannot never be national           | 66  |
| The Lernean Hydra and the political future                    | 69  |
| Parties or clubs?   | 73  |
| Trojan horses of reaction                                     | 77  |
| Democracy the victim!   | 80  |
| Free thinking citizen or directed voter                       | 82  |
| People politically activated and organised                    | 85  |
| What people expect from the progressive parties               | 87  |
| Meritocracy or leader nomination in the choice of candidates? | 90  |
| Until when will we have the need of Messiah?                  | 92  |
| The ideological identity of PASOK                             | 95  |
| Democracy is undermined from the inside                       | 97  |
| No boomerang critics  | 100 |
| Arbitrary law decapitates the army                            | 104 |
| The basis of democracy in undermined                          | 106 |
| Politics means knowledge and attendance                       | 108 |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| The prospects of elections has paralysed everything | 111 |
| The parties' programs and the elections             | 114 |
| The parties must present programs                   | 116 |
| The elections as historical confrontation           | 119 |
| The parties, the leaders and the population         | 122 |

PASOK AND THE GOVERNMENT OF CHANGE

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Great administration, basic precondition for the change              | 127 |
| The State and the Church under the Pasok government                  | 130 |
| Opportunists with "progressive" mask'                                | 133 |
| PASOK government confronts herculean task'                           | 135 |
| Meritocracy and popular consent '                                    | 138 |
| Let us begin by hitting the main targets'                            | 140 |
| Ascertainments for the first months of changeover                    | 143 |
| Change means takeover of responsible and unblemished people          | 146 |
| And yet the changeover has to succeed                                | 148 |
| With clear rules of the game   | 151 |
| Conditions for the success of the new government                     | 154 |
| The changeover requires more boldness                                | 157 |
| The action in History allows no postponements                        | 159 |
| The tense relations between PASOK and KKE and the political climate. | 162 |
| Let us learn from the time passed                                    | 165 |
| "The flimsy coup d'etat" or "the serious weekend mistakes"           | 167 |
| The Kargopoulos counter-report starting point for a useful dialogue  | 171 |
| Let us trace now, the future of our cities                           | 173 |
| National need the upgrade of education                               | 176 |
| Education-law: Let all of us assume our responsibilities             | 178 |
| The serious deficiencies and slips in the new education-law          | 181 |

FOREIGN POLICY NATO – FOREIGN MILITARY BASES

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| The Greek-Turkish chessboard hides other bigger one             | 187 |
| The "big rod"   | 190 |
| There are also other national issues                            | 193 |
| "In the zero point" our exterior policy                         | 196 |
| Briefing on national issues                                     | 198 |
| And finally, the "trivial politics" triumphed                   | 201 |
| It is high time to overcome delusions                           | 203 |
| Irrevocably in the margin the preachers of the servitude        | 206 |
| Autonomous Ostpolitik   | 208 |
| Let us say "no" to the new "cold war"                           | 210 |
| The weapon of unanimity is missing                              | 213 |
| Return to NATO with all the consequences                        | 215 |
| What is the NATO's "protection" ?                               | 218 |
| Aspects of the main national issues                             | 220 |
| Foreign Military bases: Need for complete and clear information |     |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| of people   | 223 |
| The 7 “absurds” in the discussions on foreign military bases    | 226 |
| Two Greek “atouts” in Reagan’s perfidious game                  | 228 |
| Our mistakes and the patrons of Denktash                        | 231 |
| Cyprus: Danger of deflating our reaction.                       | 233 |
| There is no such a think like the so called “destiny if Greece” | 236 |
| On the earth... with the nuclear havoc in view                  | 239 |

STATE MACHINE – BUREAUCRACY – LOCAL GOVERNMENT

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Local government and Athen’s centralism                    | 245 |
| How the state wants the local government?                  | 248 |
| Who will subdue the monster of bureaucracy?                | 250 |
| The public administration in a state of decomposition      | 253 |
| Wear and corruption in the state mechanism                 | 255 |
| Purification of the administration: And after what?        | 258 |
| Problems of the administration and realistic solutions     | 260 |
| Lessons from the Municipal elections                       | 263 |
| The new role of local government                           | 265 |
| The time of the citizens has come with the Local elections | 268 |

ECONOMY: DEVELOPMENTS AND REACTIONS

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Gallop in the dark   | 275 |
| The taxation measures and how much more equitable should they be | 278 |
| Big cost – little retribution                                    | 281 |
| Mistakes of the opposition and the democratic press              | 285 |
| Immediate need of radical change in the economy                  | 287 |
| Economy: rehabilitation or collapse                              | 293 |
| Let us turn to the countryside the development effort            | 296 |
| The golden crutches of our economy                               | 298 |
| Conditions for the success of the economic measures              | 302 |
| When the reliability is underestimated with the drachma          | 305 |
| The bitter conclusions of the EEC                                | 308 |