

VASSILIS I. FILIAS

SOCIAL SYSTEMS

Volume II

I. Politicoideological aspects of the capitalistic ascension

II. Utopian socialists and Karl Marx

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	7
I. SOCIOIDEOLOGICAL ASPECTS OF THE CAPITALISTIC ASCENSION
1. The capitalistic and the precapitalistic type of bourgeois	11
2. Freedom and Equality in the bourgeois perception	16
3. Hobbes and Locke	23
4. Rousseau και the Physiocrats	31
5. The American and French proclamation of the human rights	35
6. Public opinion and the principle of publicity	43
7. The bourgeois public opinion and the right of vote	48
8. Kant and the german idealism	52
9. Hegel and the society of his era	57
10. The ascending capitalism: Fundamental socioeconomic processes	63
Bibliography	70
II. UTOPIAN SOCIALISTS AND KARL MARX
1. The utopian socialism	73
2. Saint – Simon	75
3. Fourrié	78
4. Robert Owen	80
5. Proudhon	83
6. Kropotkin	93
7. Landauer	99
8. K. Marx and his criticism of the bourgeois freedom	106
9. K. Marx: The critics of the bourgeois equality	114
10. The concept of nature according to Karl Marx	122
11. The theory of knowledge according to K. Marx	128
12. Personality and massive social forces	133
13. The social classes according to Marx	136
14. The analytical category "capital" and the laws of capitalistic development according to Marx	142
15. The relation between society and state in the Marxian concept	148
Bibliography	155