

VASSILIS I. FILIAS

SOCIOLOGY OF THE ECONOMY

VOLUME A'

Table of contents

Introduction	11
--------------	----

FIRST PART

THE THEORETICAL APPROACH OF THE RELATION BETWEEN SOCIETY AND ECONOMY

I. The economics as social science	15
II. Sociology of the economy and sociology of the development	17
III. The sociological parameter in the basic economic schools:	19
1. Mercantalists and Physiocrats	19
2. Adam Smith	25
3. Ricardo and Malthus	29
4. John Stuart Mill	30
5. The neo-classic school	35
6. The german historic school	37
a. Friedrich List	38
b. Bruno Hildebrand	40
c. Karl Bücher	42
d. Gustav Schmoller	45
e. Werner Sombart	47
7. Max Weber	54
8. Karl Marx	64
9. Joseph Schumpeter	81
10. Talkot Parsons	92
11. Karl Polanyi	102
12. The “new institutional economics”	116
13. Marc Granovetter	118

SECOND PART

THE INSTITUTIONAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL FRAME OF THE ECONOMY

I. State and economy	127
1. A historic-theoretical flashback	127
2. Authenticity (power) models and economic process.	150
a. The German case	152
b. The French case	154
c. The Russian case	163
d. The case of USA	168

e. The Japanese case	172
f. Two modern examples: South Korea and Taiwan	177
II. Cultural elements and economy	185
1. The religious factor	185
2. Affinity structures, territorial relationships and the economic function	190
3. Cultural elements and capitalist growth in three Asian countries	199
III. City and economy	202
IV. The dynamics of the capitalist transition in Western Europe	217
V. Formation and use of the economic surplus-Its sociological parameter	223
VI. The economy in the context of the socialistic society	239
1. Introductory remarks	239
2. The socialist organization of the Economy, social implications	244
3. The socialist planning of the Economy: Problems and contradictions	251
Bibliography	261