

VASSILIS FILIAS

SOCIOLOGICAL APPROACHES

CONTENT

Introduction	3
First part: Positions on conflictual problems of the sociological theory	5
“Establishment”: significance and problematics	7
Intellectuals and power	19
Residence and social articulations	33
Dominant class and bourgeois strata at the birth of modern Greek society	50
Socialization and conscience	71
Second part: The social determinations of collective attitudes	79
The woman in the transition era	81
Intellectuals and elitism in Greece	97
The problem of the second generation emigrants	108
Third part: The institutional crisis and the problematics of social “deviance”	113
The breakdown of the traditional marriage	115
"Abundance" and the modern aspects of deshumanisation	127
Drugs: reason of their use in the modern capitalistic society	142
Criminality and social structures	148
Imprisonment and personality	160
Fourth part: Social conditions and formation of updating and information mechanisms in Greece	169
Why the Greek does not read	171
Information and counter-information: problems and prospects	182
Fifth part: Education and society in Greece	199
Prolegomena and paralipomena on the problem of education in Greece	201
Knowledge and higher education: remarks of an impasse march in Greece	218

Sixth part: Cultural aspects of social transformation	235
The cultural crisis in Greece: conclusions and interpretations	237
The necessity of cultural decentralisation	256
The artist and his public	268
Free time and quality of life	271
Underdeveloped capitalism and research in Greece	275
The family as cultural consumer under the conditions of the technological-scientific revolution – The problematic in the framework of an intereuropean research	280
Seventh part: Economy and society	293
The crisis of 1929-30 and the limits of keynesian “therapeutics”	295
Greek economy: Mirages and reality	305
The human potential in the Greek industry	327